

CAROLINE JEFFORDS

Caroline Jeffords is committed to making Georgia better for our citizens and for future generations to come. Caroline is a Georgia native and graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology where she received a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management and a certificate in Marketing. Caroline gained experience in the corporate world working for McKesson Corporation, first as a sales associate in the technology solutions business unit, then in IT project management where she was involved in the implementation of the McKesson Horizon Enterprise Visibility solution at Northeast Georgia Medical Center in Gainesville.

A passion for community service began for Caroline in 2004, when she served as Miss Georgia USA. Throughout that year, Caroline had the opportunity to represent Georgia and to help raise awareness of numerous causes at events throughout the state and country. Since then, Caroline has had the opportunity to volunteer her time and services to various organizations across Georgia. Currently, she has been selected as one of seven women to be recognized for her community and charitable work at the Women of Style & Substance Luncheon in May. She has served as a co-chair for the 2021 Marcus Autism Season of Hope Gala, 2021 Atlanta Ballet Luncheon, and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta 2019 Hope & Will Ball, raising a record amount of $1,153,411.87 and lowest cost to raise a dollar for the event. Caroline is on the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta Marcus Autism Center Board of Trustees, Atlanta Ballet Corps de Ballet Board, and previously served on the Wings for Mercy Care Board, Mercy Care Foundation Board, and Open Hand Atlanta Advisory Board.

Caroline's political involvement includes serving on the GA GOP Rules Committee, GA GOP Foundation Board of Governors, 5th District State Committee Member, and Fulton County GOP Vice Chair and Assistant Secretary. She has donated countless hours to support many Republican candidates, Republican organizations, and most importantly to help advance and ensure we have voter integrity and justice in Fulton County and throughout Georgia. Caroline believes in the conservative principles and values that make Georgia the great state that it is. Caroline has proven herself to be goal oriented, and embraces teamwork, thoughtful strategy, and hard work.
